

FEB. 21– MARCH 5, 2025 FARMING GOD'S WAY TRIP

Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.

A village in Kwaina humbles themselves before God to acknowledge him as God and God alone.

People are taught in classroom style but also given many hours of practical learning in the garden.

Each training can be customized to the area or village where people live and what they are concerned about in their farming practices.

February 21– March 5, 2025

Farming Gods Way Trip

1. This trip will mainly focus on farming practices in villages and rural areas of Uganda. Our ministry teaches Farming God's Way. You do not have to be trained in FGW to participate in this trip. We welcome all those concerned about others.
2. You will be exposed to village life and the people who live in the villages. This may include but is not limited to: home visits, local church services, visiting local schools, encouraging people, eating dinner with locals...
3. If you have special skills, we want use them. Share your skills, gifts and talents with us in your applications and we will put them to use for Gods kingdom.
4. Location and number of villages will be determined as the team develops and God leads.
